To my friends at Life for Relief and Development:

It is an honor to join in commemorating the 25th anniversary of Life for Relief and Development located in Southfield, Michigan. This notable milestone offers a special opportunity for us all to reflect upon the great work Life for Relief and Development has done for so many across the world.

Over the past 25 years, Life for Relief and Development has distributed over $452 million in humanitarian aid and relief to more than 25 countries. When natural disasters strike, Life for Relief and Development rushes to answer the call of help, and provides essential humanitarian assistance.

Congratulations on 25 years of outstanding work. I wish you continued success and best wishes for a long and prosperous future.

Sincerely,

Jeremy Moss
